Do you love landscapes and nature? What happens when a traditional painting subject like landscapes meets abstraction? In this exciting oil painting class we'll approach landscape painting with a more contemporary, personal vision. Through exercises and experimentation you'll improve your core art skills such as value ranges, strong design, captivating color, brushwork and texture. We'll also review the power of simplification in the painting process.

Artist Level: This class is for all levels of oil painters and non-beginner acrylic painters. Some drawing experience is helpful.
