

Youth Art Classes – Winter/Spring 2017

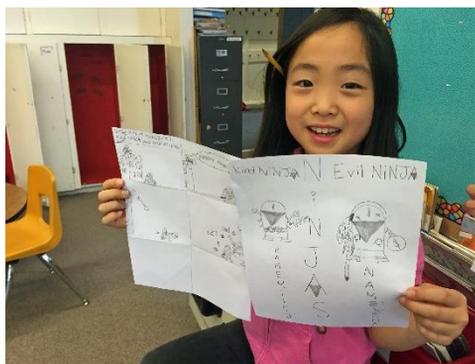

Storytelling through Comics

What will your story be?

Register on-line at www.greenwoodvillage.com/registration

For more information call the Curtis Arts & Humanities Center at 303-797-1779

Learn how to create comics! Join Pop Culture Classroom's exciting workshop to read, analyze and create your very own comics.

Over the 8 weeks, you'll learn about different comic book art & storytelling techniques and get hands-on art instruction from real-life comic book artists on things like designing characters, comic layout, perspective drawing, and so much more!

You'll finish the course with a new love for the world of comics and their creators, plus a fully illustrated comic to call your own. Students do not need to have any experience in art or comics to join!

Fridays, February 3 through March 24

4:30 to 6:00 p.m.

$100

All supplies included

9 to 14 years old

15 comic artists

Curtis Arts & Humanities Center

2349 East Orchard Road

Greenwood Village, CO 80121

Pop Culture Classroom delivers innovative pop culture-based resources to educators, administrators, parents, and community members to create educational engagement with students.

